Summary of reasons for decision:

The DVD is classified as objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes, the use of violence or coercion to compel a person to participate in, or submit to, sexual conduct, and the use of urine or excrement in association with degrading conduct.

The DVD comprises a collection of ten episodes from five sexually explicit Japanese animated series. Sexual violence against women is a sustained and dominant theme throughout. The publication presents the rape of women as sexually arousing, with one episode depicting the prolonged rape of a teenage girl at a school. The publication also presents two scenes depicting the use of urine and excrement in association with the degrading treatment of women.

Excisions to remove the problematic material were considered, but were deemed impractical because of the high extent of these depictions throughout the DVD.

The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The classification of this publication interferes with freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 are deemed to be objectionable.
